

Incentives to teachers giving good results

One-yr extension for those giving 100% result | 1,004 technical assistants to be declared daily-wagers

TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

SHIMLA, NOVEMBER 10

In order to motivate teachers to give overall good results the Cabinet today gave approval to the "Mukhya Mantri Shikshak Samman Yojana". Those giving cent per cent results will be given one-year extension in service along with monetary rewards.

The approval was given at the Cabinet at a meeting chaired by Chief Minister Virbhadra Singh here today. The scheme was announced by the Chief Minister in his 2016 budget speech saying a one-year extension would be given to the teachers who will consistently give 100 per cent results in board examinations for a period of five years. The Cabinet also gave nod to the Chief Minister's start-up/innovation projects/new industries scheme with the objective to create self-employment and employment avenues and also to upgrade the skill of entrepreneurs. The scheme also aims at helping and hand-holding entrepreneurs to select viable projects in the potential areas in manufacturing and service sectors and train them to set up start-ups and subsequently manage and run their enterprises professionally.

Chief Minister Virbhadra Singh at the Cabinet meeting in Shimla on Thursday. TRIBUNE PHOTO

The Cabinet decided to declare 1,004 Technical Assistants as Daily Wagers under MNREGA who have completed five years of service as on March 31, 2016 and to provide regular wages to 663

Other Cabinet decisions

- The Cabinet also gave a nod to the start-up/innovation projects/new industries scheme to create employment avenues
- Administrative and contingency charges to be levied at the rate of 9 per cent for the Central Government ministries and various public sector units
- A green signal was given for the creation of about 300 posts of various categories in different departments

Winter session from December 19 to 23

- The Cabinet decided to hold the five-day winter session of the Assembly at Dharamsala from December 19 to 23
- The Congress regime has already planned to hold a rally in district Kangra on December 25 to coincide with the completion of the four-year rule of the Virbhadra Government

Technical Assistant from September 26, 2012.

The Cabinet decided to levy administrative and contingency charges at the rate of 9 per cent for Central Government ministries and various public sector units, including

National Highways Authority of India, Railways and the Ministry of Defense for initiating several land acquisition proceedings in the state on the analogy of other states like Haryana, Bihar and Assam.